

- (1) It must have taken him a long time to complete this collection.
1 ② have 2 ① a long time
- (2) She went to the hairdressers to have her hair cut short.
3 ④ have 4 ③ her
- (3) He sang as he marched, which helped him to forget how tired he was.
5 ① to forget 6 ③ he was
- (4) It is surprising that a person of your intelligence should be taken in so easily.
7 ② your intelligence 8 ⑤ in
- (5) I knew that he was far from being finished, but he acted as if he had completed his homework.
9 ④ from 10 ③ finished
- (6) This train is entirely automatic. There is no driver, but a mechanic is always available in case anything should go wrong.
11 ④ in case 12 ⑤ should
- (7) I disapprove of people who make all sorts of promises which they have no intention of keeping.
13 ⑥ all sorts of 14 ③ no intention
- (8) The reporter compressed the story to the minimum possible length without ruining its effect.
15 ④ possible 16 ② its effect