

Study the following descriptions 1—5.

1. These two words, though spelled the same and pronounced the same, can have distinctively different meanings.
2. These two words, though spelled the same, can be pronounced differently to have distinctly different meanings.
3. These two words, though they are spelled differently and have distinctively different meanings, are pronounced the same.
4. These two words are spelled differently, pronounced differently and have different meanings.
5. These two words are spelled differently, pronounced the same and can only have the same meaning. In other words, in this case the same word is simply written twice.

Now select which description matches each of the following pairs of words (1)—(10) and mark the appropriate number on your answer sheet.

- | | | |
|------|-------|-------|
| (1) | close | close |
| (2) | dew | due |
| (3) | mine | mine |
| (4) | fine | fine |
| (5) | line | line |
| (6) | found | found |
| (7) | write | right |
| (8) | awe | owe |
| (9) | rain | reign |
| (10) | mean | mean |