

次の(1)～(15)の各英文について、文法的に誤りのあるものが5つある。その英文の番号を答えなさい。

- (1) The new policy has been implemented to address the issues raised by the employees during the last meeting.
- (2) Despite the heavy rain, the event went off without a hitch and everyone had a great time.
- (3) The company announced that they would be expanding its operations to several new countries.
- (4) Many people believe that climate change is a critical issue that needs to be addressed immediate.
- (5) As the CEO of the company, she oversees all operations and make strategic decisions.
- (6) The new technology promises to revolutionize the industry, offering faster and more efficient solutions.
- (7) In response to growing concerns about the environment, many companies are adopting greener practices.
- (8) The research team has discovered a new method for improving crop yields, which could have a significant impact.
- (9) Although the project was initially met with skepticism, it eventually gained wide acceptance.
- (10) The author's latest book explores themes of identity, culture, and resilience, and has been praised by critics and readers alike.
- (11) The museum's latest exhibition showcases works by contemporary artists and attracts visitors from around the world.
- (12) She is as able, if not abler than, I , so I really think she is equal to the task.
- (13) While the project was challenging, the team managed to complete it ahead of schedules.
- (14) Due to the recent economic downturn, many companies have been forced to lay off employees.
- (15) Since it was an unusual hot day, the dog lay under the tree all afternoon without barking at passersby.